

Nevada State Speech Language Clinic

Open Service Policy

Nevada State University (“Nevada State”) is committed to providing accessible and quality speech therapy services to all individuals in need.

As part of this commitment, Nevada State has established a policy of not charging clients for speech therapy services regardless of payer. Nevada State’s primary focus is on delivering effective therapeutic support without imposing financial barriers or restrictions.

This Policy applies to all speech language clients receiving services from Nevada State University. It encompasses clients of all ages receiving services on the Nevada State campus and/or at the RiteCare Clinic (2200 W. Mesquite Ave. Las Vegas, NV 89106).
