

NEVADA STATE UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF NURSING

Benjo Saba - Simulation Operations Specialist

Ben recently joined Nevada State University as a Simulation Operations Specialist. He has a strong work ethic and a diverse professional background. He began in 2003 as a licensed banker with Chase. In 2014, he transitioned into the gaming industry with Caesars Entertainment, where he further developed his skills in operations and service.

His journey into healthcare simulation started in 2020 as a standardized patient at the UNLV School of Nursing. Ben is excited to be part of the simulation team and looks forward to contributing to the education of healthcare leaders alongside the dedicated faculty and staff at NSU.
